Numbers 6:22-27

“They shall put my name upon the people of Israel, and I will bless them”

A reading from the book of Numbers

The Lord said to Moses, ‘Say to Aaron and his sons, thus you shall bless the sons of Israel: you shall say to them, The Lord bless you and keep you: The Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you: The Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace. “So shall they put my name upon the sons of Israel, and I will bless them.”

The word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 67:2-3, 5, 6 and 8 (R.2a)

Response. O God, be gracious and bless us.

O God, be gracious and bless us
and let your face shed its light upon us.
So will your ways be known upon earth
and all nations learn your saving help.

(Response)

Let the nations be glad and shout for joy, with uprightness you rule the peoples;
you guide the nations on earth.

(Response)

Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.
May God still give us his blessing that all the ends of the earth may revere him.

(Response)

The Lord BLESS
you & keep you,
the LORD make his face to shine upon you & be gracious
to you;
THE LORD LIFT UP HIS countenance UPON YOU & GIVE YOU PEACE

SECOND READING

Galatians 4:4-7

“God sent forth his Son, born of a woman.”

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Galatians

Brethren: When the time had fully come, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born under the Law, to redeem those who were under the Law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" So through God you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son then an heir.

The word of the Lord

Alleluia

In many and various ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets;
but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son.

Alleluia

GOSPEL

Luke 2:16-21

"They found Mary and Joseph, and the baby...
And at the end of eight days, he was called Jesus."
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

At that time: The shepherds went with haste to Bethlehem, and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger. And when they saw it they made known the saying which had been told them concerning this child; and all who heard it wondered at what the shepherds told them. But Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds returned glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them. And at the end of eight days, when he was circumcised, he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

REFLECTION: CHILDREN OF GOD

by Scott Hahn, PH.D.

Today we give thanks to Mary, the Mother of God. Her response to the angel, born of a humble heart, brought us life and salvation in the Child conceived in her womb. From before all ages, God had destined her for this decisive role in salvation history. She was to be the woman who in the fullness of time would bear God's only Son, as Paul tells us in today's Epistle. In times past, God spoke to His chosen people, the Israelites, through prophets, and imparted His blessings upon them through His priests, as we hear in today's First Reading. But now, He has sent His Son—to reveal His glory and His kingdom, to make His way of salvation known to all nations, as we sing in today's Psalm. In the Infant lying in the manger, God has shone His face upon us. Jesus is made a child of Israel, an heir of God's covenant with Abraham, by His circumcision in today's Gospel. And we have been made adopted sons and daughters by Baptism, which is the circumcision of Christ, the true circumcision. As children of God, Paul says today, we are heirs of the Father's blessings, which He promised to bestow on all peoples through the descendants of Abraham. This is the blessing which Aaron imparted to Israel, the people descended from Abraham. And this blessing comes to us through Mary and the Child. This is the good news of great joy that the shepherds make known in Bethlehem today. Like the shepherds, we too should make haste today to find Jesus with Mary and Joseph, and to glorify God for His blessings. And like Mary, we should keep his word and reflect upon it, letting it dwell richly in our hearts.
