

CONSOLATA SHRINE
FIFTH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME
8TH FEBRUARY 2026

FIRST READING

Isaiah 58: 7-10

“Your light shall break forth like the dawn.”

A reading from the Book of Isaiah

Thus says the Lord:

“Share your bread
with the hungry, and bring the homeless
poor into your house;
when you see the naked, cover him, and do not hide yourself
from your own flesh.
Then shall your light break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up speedily; your righteousness shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry, and he will say, Here I am. If you take away from the midst of you the yoke, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness, if you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday.”

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 112: 4-5, 6-7, 8a and 9
(R. 4a)

R. A light rises in the darkness for the upright.

A light rises in the darkness for the upright;
he is generous, merciful and just.

It goes well for the man who deals generously and lends,
who conducts his affairs with justice. R.

He will never be moved;
forever shall the just be remembered.

He has no fear of evil news;
with a firm heart, he trusts in the Lord. R.

With a steadfast heart he will not fear.

Open-handed, he gives to the poor;
his justice stands firm forever.
His might shall be exalted in glory. R.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 2: 1-5

"I have told you of the mystery of Christ crucified"

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

When I came to you, brethren, I did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God in lofty words or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. And I was with you in weakness and in much fear and trembling; and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and power, that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

The word of the Lord

ALLELUIA

John 8:12

Alleluia

I am the light of the world, says the Lord;
he who follows me will have the light of life.

Alleluia.

GOSPEL

Mathew 5: 13-16

“You are the light of the world.”

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mathew

At that time:

Jesus said to his disciples, “You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trodden under foot by men. “You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do men light a lamp and put it under a bushel, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Reflection: Light Breaking Forth by Scott Hahn, Ph. D

Jesus came among us as light to scatter the darkness of a fallen world.

As His disciples, we too are called to be “the light of the world,” He tells us in the Gospel this Sunday (see John 1:4–4, 9; 8:12; 9:5). All three images that Jesus uses to describe the Church are associated with the identity and vocation of Israel. God forever aligned His kingdom with the kingdom of David and his sons by a “covenant of salt,” salt being a sign of permanence and purity (see 2 Chronicles 13:5, 8; Leviticus 2:13; Ezekiel 43:24). Jerusalem was to be a city set on a hill, high above all others, drawing all nations toward the glorious light streaming from her Temple (see Isaiah 2:2; 60:1–3). And Israel was given the mission of being a light to the nations, that God's salvation would reach to the ends of the earth (see Isaiah 42:6; 49:6). The liturgy shows us this week that the Church, and every Christian, is called to fulfill Israel's mission. By our faith and good works we are to make the light of God's life break forth in the darkness, as we sing in this week's Psalm. This week's readings remind us that our faith can never be a private affair, something we can hide as if under a basket. We are to pour ourselves out for the afflicted, as Isaiah tells us in the First Reading. Our light must shine as a ray of God's mercy for all who are poor, hungry, naked, and enslaved. There must be a transparent quality to our lives. Our friends and family, our neighbors and fellow citizens, should see reflected in us the light of Christ and through us be attracted to the saving truths of the Gospel. So let us pray that we, like St. Paul in the Epistle, might proclaim with our whole lives "Christ, and him crucified."
